

VICTORIA VERY ILL.

The Royal Physicians Are in Almost Hourly Attendance on the British Queen.

OFFICIALS DENY THAT IS SERIOUS.

The Announcement of Her Indisposition Has Caused a Shock to the Whole Country.

The Prince of Wales Can Not Act For the Queen Without the Authority of Parliament, Which Is Not in Session.

Cowen, Isle of Wight, Jan. 19.—It is reported that Sir James Reid and Sir Francis Laking, the royal physicians, are in almost hourly attendance on the queen. Her trip to the south of France has been abandoned. Officials at Osborne house deny that the queen is seriously ill.

London, Jan. 19.—Although it is fully understood that there is no cause for alarm beyond what would naturally be felt at the indisposition of any one of the queen's age, the official announcement issued Friday evening has caused a shock to the country, the effect of which will be difficult to exaggerate. Her majesty's absolute freedom from illness during the longest reign in English history has led her people to regard her almost as more than mortal, and the mere novelty of having to face the possibility of a regency has sufficed to create unnecessary apprehension.

Still Able to Sign Documents.

It is necessary to go back to a date prior to 1870 for a similar situation.

Queen Victoria.

Since that time there has never been an interruption of the smooth working of the constitutional machine. One, not even the prince of Wales, can act for the queen without the authority of parliament, and, as no steps have been taken to summon parliament, it may be said that the queen has only adopted measures of precaution and that she is still able to sign any absolutely imperative documents, though she is relieved of the worries of routine affairs.

Comment of London Papers.

All the morning papers comment upon the unexpected possibilities of the situation, but they do not regard it as alarming. The Daily News says: "We fear it can not be doubted that her majesty's health is precarious, but it seems impossible to believe that she should be so ill. We must hope and trust that a short period of repose will restore her strength of body and mind. The fact that the prince of Wales attended the banquet to Lord Roberts given by the United Service club may serve to dispel an alarming view of the case, though the queen's age must make any illness the cause of anxiety."

Her Long Reign.

The Graphic, commenting upon the queen's "untiring self-sacrifice," says: "We hope it is only a passing warning to her to spare herself in the future."

The Times, which takes a similar view, remarks that it is only since Tuesday that the "queen has abandoned her daily drive," and points out that Saturday she attained the age of one day greater than that of George III., thus having not only reigned the longest, but also lived the longest of British sovereigns. Proceeding to state upon the immense changes and progress during the queen's reign, and upon the "unexampled manner in which she has won her way into the affections of her people," the Times says: "There can not be any doubt whatever that the oldest British sovereign is also the best loved."

BANK HELD UP.

The President of the Concern Shot and Mortally Wounded By Outlaws at Bristol, I. T.

White, Kan., Jan. 19.—A dispatch has reached here giving the details of the holding up of the bank of Bristol, I. T., by outlaws, and stating that the president of the bank was mortally wounded. The robbers got away with the bank's cash, but a posse is in pursuit.

Michael O'Sullivan Dead.

New York, Jan. 19.—Michael O'Sullivan, ex-champion all-around athlete, died in the Presbyterian hospital. O'Sullivan was born in Cork, Ireland, in 1857, and made his debut at the Kinsale sports in 1879, winning the seven-pound winding weight with a throw of 57 feet.

PEACE AT CORBIN.

Shotwell and His Followers Arrested, and a Threatened Futurist War Is Averted.

Corbin, Ky., Jan. 19.—The presence of a large Gatlin gun stationed at a commanding point and nearly 100 soldiers scattered about over the town and its immediate vicinity had a quieting effect on the blood-thirsty citizens of this place Friday, and Friday night the troops, who no longer needed, were withdrawn.

When the citizens awoke Friday morning they found a Gatlin gun covering all important points of the town and the soldiers patrolling the streets. There was no place for the militia men to take shelter, and they consequently were forced to patch up the trouble without delay.

Shotwell Forces Arrested.

First the Shotwell boys, Charles, James and Robert, sons of the murdered man, and the boys, who were arrested, then the police judge was asked to investigate the dynamiting of the White store and the killing of the Cox woman. Then Sheriff Partridge, who was acting as judge, took up the matter, and had before him several witnesses, including Hugh White, proprietor of the store which was wrecked and in which he and Bill White were guarding their brother, who had killed old man Shotwell. White claimed to have been one of the participants in the rioting, and the investigation was not completed.

THE BOSSCHIEFFER CASE.

Jury Returns Verdict of Murder in Second Degree Against McAllister. Death and Campbell.

New York, Jan. 19.—Walter C. McAllister, Andrew J. Campbell and William Death, three of the four persons indicted for the murder of Jennie Bosschier, a mill girl at Paterson, N. J., who was murdered on the night of October 15, last, were all found guilty of murder in the second degree, for which, according to the New Jersey law, the maximum penalty is 30 years' imprisonment. The jury took 14 ballots. When they filed into the court room the prisoners appeared very nervous. McAllister seemed more excited than any of the others. He sat biting his lips while waiting. Campbell thrust his hands into his trousers pockets and clenched his fists in them. Death looked anxiously about the court room for a moment and then assumed the same attitude as Campbell. When the verdict was announced the prisoners evinced neither elation nor relief.

Judge Dixon thanked the jury and said he believed the verdict a just one. He then dismissed the jurors until Monday morning. The court then rose and the prisoners were taken back to jail.

THE KU'NS BROTHERS.

Martin Was Taken to the Ohio Penitentiary Saturday Night. He Is Held at Plymouth for Trial.

Plymouth, Ind., Jan. 19.—The two men in jail here were recognized as Martin Kuhns, the double murderer and escaped life convict from the Ohio penitentiary at Columbus, O., and his brother John. Kuhns was taken to the penitentiary Saturday. The Ohio officials came here for him. A reward of $1,000 offered by the Ohio officials will be paid. He was recognized Friday by former neighbors at Albion, John Kuhns, the brother who will be held here and tried. A dispatch from Albion says Kuhns, his brother John and a cousin named Smith left their home at Albion on a westerly direction Saturday evening after giving an oyster supper. Kuhns is a life convict for the murder of a life partner 12 years ago, and for weeks has stalked abroad in this state defying the authorities.

ITS DISPOSED OF.

The Senate Passed the Army Reorganization Bill By a Vote of 43 to 23.

FOUR DEMOCRATS VOTED FOR IT

Question Was Not Upon Its Passage, But Upon Agreeing to the Senate Amendments.

The House Considered the Bill to Refer to the Court of Claims the Claims of William Crump & Sons, of Philadelphia.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Just before 6 o'clock the senate finally disposed of the army reorganization bill. The measure having originated in the senate, the first question was not upon its passage, but upon agreeing to the senate amendments. They were agreed to by a vote of 43 to 23. While party lines were drawn on the vote, four democrats voted for it—Senators Lindsay (Ky.), McFarlin (S. C.), Morgan (Ala.) and Sullivan (Miss.). The amendments were those who were detained at his home by illness, was paired against the bill with Senator Spooner (Wis.).

Numerous Amendments.

While the opposition to it at all stages was vigorous, it never was bitter. Numerous amendments were made to it, but in general the committee was sustained, and the measure, with the exception of the elimination of the canteen clause, is not widely different from that reported to the senate.

A determined effort was made to amend the bill so as to provide against the sale of liquor in the Philippines and to prohibit the importation of any kind of intoxicants into the islands, but it was defeated.

Other Measures Passed.

The following bills were passed: Authorizing the postmaster general to lease premises for the use of the United States delivery division of the post office department; extending the law for the commencement to January 28, 1902, and the completion to January 28, 1904, of a bridge across the Mississippi river at Tacoma, S. D.; authorizing the appointment of J. A. Lutton to a captaincy of infantry in the United States army.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Day Spent on the Claims of a Philadelphia Ship Building Firm For Allocated Damages.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The house spent the entire day Friday on the bill to refer to the court of claims the claims of the William Crump & Sons Ship Building Co., of Philadelphia, for alleged damages due to the injury of the government in furnishing armor plate and material for the cattle ships Massachusetts and Indiana and cruisers New York and Columbia.

The claims aggregate $1,367,244. The bill has been conspicuous at every session of congress for several years. It was introduced by the late determined opposition of a portion of the minority under the leadership of Mr. McMillen (N. J.) and Mr. Robb (N. Y.). The measure was finally begun its arduous journey through congress in having the previous question ordered upon the bill. The house then adjourned. The ordering of the previous question gives the bill a tactical advantage in a parliamentary way which practically insures a vote upon it whenever it is called up again.

Military Academy Bill.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Senator Sewell, from the committee on military affairs, reported the military academy appropriation bill. The committee recommends an increase in the total appropriation made by the bill as it passed the house of $73,490 for the construction of officers' quarters. The total amount carried by the bill is $773,641.

To Suppress Hoaxing.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 19.—A concurrent resolution was passed by the senate condemning the practice of hoaxing at the national military academy at West Point. The resolution instructs the Kansas delegation in congress to use every effort to secure the adoption of measures necessary to suppress such practice.

ACTIVE RECRUITING

It Is in Progress in All the Principal Cities—Enlistments Are For Three Years.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Active recruiting for the army is in progress in all the principal cities of the country. The authorized strength of the regular army at present is 65,000 men, and it is the intention to maintain it at that strength after the discharge of the 35,000 volunteers on June 30, next. All enlistments are for three years, and the number of recruits enlisted since August 1, 1901, due to the delay in action on the army bill, the impression prevails in the war department that it will be almost impossible to get all the volunteers to this country in time to permit their discharge here by June 30, in that case it will be necessary to discharge a number of them in the Philippines on that date. In order to keep them there until replaced by regular troops now being recruited. Otherwise it would not be possible to keep the Philippine army at the limit of 40,000 men, regarded as essential to the enforcement of the senate's policy, while the proposed amendments were under consideration. It is said at the war department that all the volunteers will be discharged at the expiration of the term in the near future will determine to a considerable extent whether the discharges shall take place in the Philippines or in the United States. Every effort will be made to get as many of them home as possible before their discharge.

DESTROYING MOSQUITOES.

The Sanitary Department of Havana Takes Precautions Against the Spread of Yellow Fever.

Havana, Jan. 19.—The sanitary department is taking measures to destroy mosquitoes to prevent yellow fever. The inspectors have been ordered to pay particular attention to breeding places both inside and outside of houses and to use petroleum at least twice a month to destroy the eggs and seal all opening of walls and ceplings. They have also been instructed to use the general use of mosquito netting.

PRUSSIAN EMPIRE.

The Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Establishment of the Government Celebrated.

LA GALT BY EMPEROR TO VISITORS.

Ambassador White Delivered the Congratulations of President McKinley to the Kaiser.

Luncheon Given in the Gorgeous White Hall to Over 1,200 Persons—Foreign Ambassadors and Ministers Were Present.

Berlin, Jan. 19.—Emperor William welcomed the visiting princes, the ambassadors and great nobles of the empire in honor of the bicentenary of the Prussian empire. His majesty drank the health of the newly crowned king and carried on a lively conversation with those sitting near him, who were supported repeatedly by the ambassadors.

Mr. White, when delivering President McKinley's congratulations to the emperor, emphasized the fact that it was Bismarck, who first recognized the independence of the United States, and also that the first commercial treaty negotiated by the United States was made with Prussia. He mentioned appreciatively Germany's liberal policy in opening her universities and technical schools to foreigners.

Lieutenant William, who replied pleasantly, pointed out that nations of German blood must hold together in the great controversies of the world.

The Luncheon.

The luncheon began at 2 o'clock and lasted a full 4 o'clock. It was given in the gorgeous white hall and over 1,200 persons were present. The chief table was in the form of a hollow square, and there were tables also in the galleries. The emperor and empress occupied the center of the chief table, surrounded by the members of the Prussian order, the reason being that this year the orderfest coincided with the bicentenary celebration.

The Bill of Fare.

The bill of fare was rather simple, including broth, soup, roast with vegetables, truffles, game pie, jellied lobster, capon, fruit, salad, orange ice, cheese, dessert and exquisite wines from the royal cellars. During the luncheon musical selections from Meyerbeer, Weber, Handel, Wagner and Strauss were played. Hundreds of soldiers were quietly detailed to stand outside, bringing the dishes to the tables.

The Imperial Chancellor.

The imperial chancellor, Count von Bismarck, opened the emperor's speech on the chancellor's right, Russia, France and the United States. On his left were the ambassadors of Austria, Great Britain, Turkey and Spain. The city was brilliantly illuminated.

Prince Ferdinand Henry of Orange.

The Kaiser ordered the German minister to the Netherlands, Count von Platen, to deposit in Delft, South Holland, upon the tomb of Prince Frederick Henry of Orange, father of the wife of the great warrior, a wreath showing the Prussian colors and bearing the inscription "In Memory of the Grandfather of the First Prussian King."

Fifteen new peers for the Prussian hereditary, or house of lords, were appointed by the emperor, the list including Rev. Dr. Dreyer and Prof. Fiedler of the Charlottenburg university high school, as well as a number of mayors.
